A DISCOVERY.

A glass of beer in tablet form
Is the very latest gag;
And in its train perhaps we'll gain
A tabloid form of jag.

The funeral of little Leslie McMahan took place yesterday morning with services at the grave by Rev. Felix K. Struve. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

Owing to a break in the Courier's machinery she was compelled to lay over this morning in Cincinnati for repairs, and the Greenwood did the way business in her stead.

Colonel C. L. Rosenham returned home yesterday, after a ten days visit at Louisville, Bardonia, Nelsonville and New Haven. Mr. Austin Rosenham Quigley, who graduated in the Medical School at Louisville will arrive Tuesday on a visit, after which he will locate in the Falls City and practice his profession in the office of his uncle, Dr. Creamer, one of the oldest and leading physicians in the city.

One of Maurice Coughlin's fine hacks was badly damaged Sunday morning by collision with streetcar in front of G. W. Child's cigar store in Second street. A door and side lamp were torn off, a spoke in the hind wheel was shattered and the front spring broken. The driver was thrown from his seat and Bruce Crawford, one of the occupants, had his leg badly hurt. Altogether it was an unfortunate mishap and it will require several dollars to repair damages.

NEGROES ON RAMPAGE

John Spencer, Hiram Alexander and Emmett Payne Run Amuck With Murderous Intent

Chronic Peace Disturbers in the Law's Clutches

John Spencer, a crazy colored man, was on a rampage Saturday, threatening to kill his aged mother with an ax.

He was arrested by Sheriff Mackey and Officer Senteney and placed in Jail.

Spencer's relatives are afraid of their lives at his hands, as this is not the first time he has been arrested on a similar charge. He ought to be put some place where no harm will come to innocent and respectable people.

He is known to be a dangerous character.

Hiram Alexander, colored, ran amuck in Market street Saturday night.

He was drunk, armed with a revolver and wanted to kill Henry Johnson, colored.

Notwithstanding his braggadocio as to what he would do if any one attempted his arrest, he was collared by Officer Ryan and together with Johnson was yanked off to Jail.

A bluff don't go with Chief Ort's men; they all have sand in their craw and staying qualities.

The Sunday quietude of yesterday afternoon was rudely broken about 2:30 o'clock by the rapid firing of four or five pistol shots, which came from the lower grade on the Ohio shore.

The fusillade came from the town officers of Aberdeen and the object of their had marksmanship was Emmett Payne, colored, who elusively pulled his skiff to this side of the river without receiving a scratch, although the distance when the firing began was not over thirty feet.

Payne has been excommunicated from the community under the penalty of fine and incarceration in prison, in consequence of his having taken a shot or two at his wife some two weeks ago, an account of which was published in THE LEDGER at the time.

Payne says he did not intend entering the town or violating his parole, but had sent a boy up to his former home to get his clothing with the intention of bringing them over here, where he is employed.

Soon after the firing began both sides of the river bank were lined with people all eager to see and learn the cause of the trouble.

FINED $100

Was the Adams Express Company For Bringing Beer Into Shepherdsville—Appeal Taken.

At Shepherdsville, County Judge R. F. Hays fined the Adams Express Company $100 on the charge of bringing liquor into a local option county and precinct.

Some weeks since the company shipped twenty-three kegs of beer to a fishing club.

The judgment was rendered by default and the case will probably be appealed, the express company claiming the right to ship under interstate commerce law.

The question in the case is as to whether the beer was shipped from Louisville or Jeffersonville, Ind.

We have about 350 Knee Pants, in all colors, that we will sell during this week at just one-half of the price. Blues and blacks, however, are not in this sale. Mothers, here is the chance to buy the little fellow two pairs for the price of one. Spot cash when the Pants are taken out of the house.

We still have quite a number of our Two-Piece Outing Suits that we are offering and selling at greatly reduced prices! We have made the same reduction on our Panama Hats that we have on all the other Straw Hats, namely, one-third off. This is the first time that Panamas were ever sold that cheap.

AN after farce-comedy reflection is that the great BILL CARNES, of somewhere, "seen his duty and done it."—Courier-Journal.

JUDGE HARGIS has decided to retire from the assassination business. If he is very, very good he's going to be quite lonesome in bloody Breathitt.

"If people paid as strict attention to de Ten Commandments," said Uncle EBEN, "as dey pays to de rules of a card game, de piety of dis world would be sumpin' surprisin'."

THE Pennsylvania Democrats have adopted the slogan, "Thou shalt not steal."—Louisville Times.

Some more Democratic advice. "Thou" means the other fellow. Why not declare: "We will not steal."

THE Cincinnati Volksblatt, the leading German newspaper of the country, comes out strong for TAFT, and declares that with Ohio's delegation behind him, his nomination in the National Convention is assured.

FORMER Vice-President ADLAI E. STEVENSON in a recent interview at Norfolk, Va., stated that he favored W. J. BRYAN for the Democratic nomination. The world do move, but Uncle ADLAI don't seem to know it.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER is for TAFT for President and proposes to support his candidacy to the end; but we rise to remark that The New York World's alleged support of the Secretary is a great big yellow hoodoo. The World is merely advertising itself.

GOVERNOR BECKHAM has worked the Caleb Powers game of partisan politics to the limit. The tide has turned, and the Powers matter is hurting CRAPPS more than it is helping him. Better ring off, Gov., or you're a goner.

ACCORDING to Colonel SAMUEL H. STONE, former State Auditor of Kentucky, who was recently in Washington on business, the Republicans have an excellent chance of winning in the Gubernatorial election. Colonel STONE declares that the result depends in a great measure upon the way the vote of Louisville goes. Outside of Louisville, he says, the contest is unusually even.

THE acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has ruled that when liquors are ordered by a guest of a hotel from the bar and served in the room accompanied by a price slip or ticket, no liability to special tax is incurred by the hotel proprietor, even though at request, and for the convenience of said guest, he pays the amount of such ticket or slip in cash to the bar and charges it up to the guest's account.

AT Campton, county seat of Wolf county, comes this little story of mountain morality: To avoid continual quarreling among his illegitimate children and possibly another murder, GEORGE W. CARSON, aged 77, twice County Judge and twice Sheriff of Wolf county, has obtained permission from the Wolf Circuit Court to adopt them as his legal heirs. Judge CARSON has an estate valued at nearly $100,000. He was never married.

IMMIGRATION RIGHT!
Circassians Looking For a New Home in This State

Provided 3,000 acres of good, well-watered ground can be produced by the land owners in any one section of the state it is probable that a colony of Circassians from the Caucasus will settle in Kentucky.

This news came in the form of a letter to Judge W. G. Dearing of Louisville from Orlan Clyde Cullen, a prominent Attorney of St. Paul, who represents this particular colony of Russians, who have expressed a desire to immigrate to this country.

"CAMP COX"
Happy Gang of Maysvillians Cruises on the Ohio Hunting For a Good Time

"Camp Cox" in honor of the next Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky, Hon. W. H. Cox, is the name of the summer camp of a small party of Maysvillians, who started out Sunday morning in the "wee sma' hours" for a two weeks' cruise on the Ohio bank opposite Concord.

In the party were: Col. Leon Squires, Col. William Schlitz, Col. Conrad Rasp and Col. Hal Curran.

A remarkable thing about the gathering is that the party is made up of Colonels—there ain't a General or a Private in the gang.

"Camp Cox" is fully equipped for a good time, and fishing, hunting, bathing and other innocent stunts will be the order of the day. P. S.—And the next day it rained.

WIFE ON DINER
When C. and O. Train Carried Husband and Child Away

An unusual incident occurred in Ashland when the fast through train arrived there from the East. On board were Mr. and Mrs. Graves of St. Louis, New Foundland, en route to Louisville, accompanied by their infant child.

When the train reached Huntington, Mr. Graves was in the diner and Mr. Graves was in the Pullman with the child.

Without her knowledge, the diner was cut off at the siding in Ashland, and the father and child sent on over the Lexington division, leaving the mother behind.

When Mrs. Graves discovered what had been done she was frantic with fear.

The C. and O. officials immediately took the matter, and by wiring ahead, caught Mr. Graves and the baby and dispatched the wife and mother on the next train.

SAVED HIS BLOCK

Drunken Man Dozing on Railroad Viaduct Pulled Out of Way Just in Time

Saturday morning a well-appearing man evidently a railroader in some capacity, who was just drunk enough to be indifferent to his danger, sat down on the edge of the timber runner that lines the track on the viaduct at the foot of Market street, and placing his elbows on his knees and his head between his hands dropped off into a comfortable snooze.

The position of the sleeper brought his head in a direct angle with the outer edge of the cross beam on the forward part of a moving locomotive, and had he been permitted to have remained in his seat for only a short time he would have been knocked to kingdom come by the Westbound passenger train that whizzed by a few minutes later.

Mr. Alex Johnson happening along noticed the peril of the man and aroused him from his slumber and insisted on his moving away, which he did, but indignant that his American rights of sleeping on a railroad track had been interfered with.

And still many people wonder at the number of unfortunates ground to pieces under the wheels of moving trains.

It is easily to be seen wherein lies the fault.

The body of little Leslie Leonard McMahan was found at Levanna Saturday morning at 5 o'clock, and was brought home Saturday evening to his grief-stricken parents and was buried Sunday morning from the undertaking establishment of Mr. John W. PECULIAR FATALITIES

Mishaps of Men Who Have Been Connected With Powers Case

A peculiar fatality has followed many of the men who have assisted in the prosecution of the Goebel conspiracy cases. A partial list follows: Thomas C. Campbell, leading counsel against Powers, and one of the most venal members of the legal profession in America, died from the effects of a shipwreck on a yachting cruise in the tropics, after having suffered the pangs of starvation.

Judge James E. Cantrill of Georgetown, who presided in one of the trials, and whose ruling was notoriously partisan, is a physical and mental wreck, and because of his disability was compelled to retire from the Appellate Court Bench. His fine residence in Georgetown was also burned to the ground since the last trial of Powers.

Abner Craig, a jurymen, failed in business. Another juror, whose name also is not remembered, was poisoned but recovered.

Another juror was struck on the head by a piece of glass and so badly hurt that paralysis resulted.

Another juror was burned to death.

One of James Howard's jurors named Crutchfield, was poisoned and died.

Another Howard juror was sent to the Penitentiary.

Thomas Shuff, Sheriff of Scott county during the first Powers trial, is a confirmed invalid.

Deputy Sheriff William Rogers, who helped to select the jurors, is also in a precarious physical condition.

M. E. Combs, a witness for the prosecution, dropped dead in Indiana.

W. B. Anderson, another prosecuting witness, is dead.

F. M. Hurst, a prosecuting witness, is dead.

"Strolling Barber" Weaver was indicted for perjury, and his whereabouts are not known.

Robert E. Noaks confessed that he had perjured himself and that he was induced to give perjured testimony while drugged.

A three-year-old child of Judge Ben G. Williams of Frankfort, who prosecuted Powers, was burned to death.

"Tallow Dick" Combs of Manchester, Clay county, one of the important witnesses for the Commonwealth in the Caleb Powers case, was killed Wednesday near Georgetown by a passenger train while traveling from Georgetown to Frankfort.

Lexington's beautiful new union passenger station was opened yesterday.

The steamer Sunshine, which was sold by the Louisville and Jeffersonville Ferry Company, is now on the upper Ohio in the excursion trade between Cincinnati and Wheeling. She is making money for her owners.

READ THIS AND PROFIT THEREBY!

This is a trying time of the year. Many discomforts arise from the heat. The best way to be comfortable is by bathing often, at least twice daily, and by using a liberal quantity of talcum powder. By bathing often one keeps the skin clean and the pores open, thereby allowing the entire body to "breathe freely," which means perfect health. The best soap to use for the bath and toilet is Picard's Complexion Soap, a non-injurious, healthful soap. Talcum powder keeps the skin cool, allays heat rash, stops chafing and is an excellent toilet requisite. We have a number of kinds.

A little time devoted to the care of the hair works wonders. Just use Ayer's Hair Vigor, the new kind, systematically and conscientiously, and see the result. Stops falling hair, cures dandruff, makes the hair grow. Ask your doctor about this. We mention the formula of J. C. Ayer Co. of all our preparations. Lowell, Mass.

President Roosevelt would make no comment when the telegram was handed him informing him of Judge Landis' Standard Oil decision. It even paralyzed the Man with the Big Stick.

Caleb Powers has handed Judge Robbins a hot one. He issued a sensational statement to the public Saturday, in which he gives affidavits of four men, A. N. Bradley, Jr., L. L. Bristow, W. H. Johnson and G. W. Johnson, making charges affecting the alleged improper conduct of Special Judge Robbins in the former trial of the case against Powers.

Saturday at Chicago, Judge Landis fined the Standard Oil Company $29,240,000 for accepting rebates from the Chicago and Alton Railway. It is the largest fine ever exacted in the history of the law.

The fine is so enormous that it is excessive and confiscatory, and if the next Court to pass on it does not reverse the verdict, the public will be astonished.

Judge Landis may be right in his fearlessness and aggressiveness, but such spectacular judicial stunts will never be permitted to permanently go on the docket. If they did all business will be jeopardized. The Standard Oil Company is being made a popular scapegoat.

"The amount of Judge Landis' fines," said an oil official, authoritatively for the Company, "is 50 times the value of the oil carried under the indictment. The total value of the oil was $650,000. For each car of oil valued at about $450, we have been fined $20,000."

The Company will carry the case to the Supreme Court.

Miss Amanda Goodwin of Rectorville is here for a few days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Goodwin.

Mr. John Otto, as usual, is in the lead, having made his first topping of tobacco the first of last week, leaving a number of nice heads for seed.

Mr. J. T. Goodwin has added to the value and also looks of his nice cottage on Otto street by the erection of a neat summer kitchen just in rear of premises.

Mr. Leo R. Weaver, one of our up-to-date farmers who resides on the Springdale pike, thought he would subdue some of the rank weeds infecting and encroaching the roadside and margins of the road itself, so hooking his team to the mower he sallied forth, but before much progress was made his sickle was entangled in a huge brush pile left there on the road by the backwater in March last. Of course the Turnpike Inspectors or Advisory Board did not see it while enjoying that smooth ride, else how could they have reported our pike in such elegant condition?

Mr. William F. Jones of Morgan county, Ky., and Miss Ursula Raser of Mason county departed Saturday for Eagles Mills, Clinton county, Ohio, where the nuptial knot will be tied. They were accompanied to this station by Mrs. Jenkins, mother of the bride-elect and sister, Mrs. Ed Hamilton of Bath county.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Maysville Women are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ill. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. J. B. Gibson of 22 East Fourth street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"The prompt and thorough action of Doan's Kidney Pills should recommend them to everyone suffering from backache or kidney troubles. I have known the value of this remedy for several years. Its use in my case proved to me that it is a reliable kidney cure and cannot be excelled for backache or weakness of the kidneys. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills before and I should advise every sufferer to get a supply and try them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box; Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
